

Naomi Edwards Is Lovely Bride of Kenneth Lockman

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH O. LOCKMAN JR.

One of the lovely weddings of the season was solemnized Saturday evening in South Bay Christian church, Redondo Beach, when Miss Naomi Joyce Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Edwards of 2208 Andree avenue, became the bride of Kenneth Lockman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Uby, of 1730 S. Lomita. Rev. Leonard J. Cook officiated at the double-ring, candle-light ceremony, performed in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, was gowned in a traditional white satin gown. Her veil, of bridal illusion, was draped from a coronet of seed pearl orange blossoms. A strand of pearls completed her costume and her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Myrna Lou Fossum, in a gown of yellow taffeta, served as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Gray and Miss Jeannette Probert, who were gowned identically in aqua taffeta with tiaras of pink rosebuds.

A pretty candle lighting ceremony was performed by Mrs. Dean Lougee and Miss Vivian Oliver, in pink taffeta with wristlets and tiaras of yellow rosebuds.

Little Marilyn Dennis, a cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer. Billy Uby, small brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Bill Turentine was the bridegroom's attendant and usher.

Refreshments were served by board members of the hostess unit, Mrs. A. W. Hutchins, president.

Representing 186th Street PTA at the ceremony were Mrs. Leo Wagner, president; Mrs. James A. Gauley, president-elect; Mrs. D. W. TenEyck, treasurer of Gardena-Wilmington Council and the ladies' husbands.
